

Business News Release

For Immediate Release

Date: October 8, 2009

Michelle Hanson Earns Certified Payroll Professional (CPP) Designation

WILLMAR – Conway, Deuth & Schmiesing, PLLP announces that Michelle Hanson, a payroll specialist, has been awarded her Certified Payroll Professional (CPP) designation. The Certified Payroll Professional (CPP) designation, awarded by the American Payroll Association, signifies Michelle has achieved a significant level of proficiency and detailed knowledge of payroll taxation, tax reporting, legislative and regulatory requirements, MIS, human resources, benefits and accounting as they relate to the payroll environment. She is awarded this designation based on the successful completion of a comprehensive four hour exam. Recertification is required every 5 years.

“We are thrilled with Michelle’s dedication to expanding her knowledge and expertise by achieving this certification,” said Annette Benson, CPA and Partner at Conway, Deuth & Schmiesing, PLLP. “She is a great asset to our firm and our clients,” added Benson.

Michelle Hanson joined the staff at Conway, Deuth & Schmiesing, PLLP as a Payroll Specialist in September 2007. Michelle specializes in payroll, CDS TimeKeeper, an automated timekeeping system, and NetClient. She brings eight years of payroll and accounting experience to CDS. She attended Central Lakes College in Brainerd, Minnesota studying Accounting.

Michelle is involved with United Way of West Central Minnesota’s Empower: Women United in Philanthropy. She is also a member of Young Professionals and Willmar Jaycees. Michelle also volunteers for the Girl Scouts of Minnesota and Wisconsin Lakes and Pines Council. Michelle and her husband and three children reside in Willmar, MN.